FT. SHAFTER SOCIETY

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)
FORT SHAFTER, Aug. 28.—Ladies' Night at the Officers' club last Monday evening was largely attended by bridge lovers of the garrison. Capt. James Bell, 2nd Infantry, was the lucky winner of a beautiful prize consisting of a half dozen beautiful Canton china plates. Mrs. Bell was hostess for the evening. Those present were Capt. and Mrs. Cochran, Capt. and Mrs. Barker, Capt. and Mrs. Parker, Capt. and Mrs. Bell, Mrs. Lenihan, Lieut. and Mrs. Wheeler, Lieut. and Mrs. Greene, Capt. and Mrs. Lincoln, Lieut. and Mrs. Hardie, Lieut. and Mrs. Richardson, and Miss Richardson.

Miss Catherine Lenihan entertained with a charming dinner for 10 before the dance last evening, having as her outside guests Miss Lucy Webb, Miss Maggie Mae Richardson, Lieut. Silvester, Lieut. Jones, Lieut. Lyman, Lieut. and Mrs. Greene. The color scheme of pink and green was carried out in table decorations.

Mrs. Jamerson entertained at luncheon last Saturday for Miss Mary Margaret Walker. Other guests were Mrs. Horner, Mrs. Harrison Randolph, Mrs. Cooper and Mrs. Atkinson.

Lieut. and Mrs. Robert G. Calder entertained on Sunday at dinner for Lieut. and Mrs. Mathews, Lieut. Silvester, and Captain Mudd of Schofield Barracks.

Miss Elizabeth Rosenbaum has issued invitations for a farewell party in honor of Miss Gertrude Malone, who leaves on the transport next Saturday for Bryn Mawr, and Miss Esme Damon.

On last Saturday evening Capt. and Mrs. Charles Lincoln chaperoned a party of young people who motored out to Haleiwa for dinner and the moonlight dance at the hotel. Those in the party were Lieut. and Mrs. Richardson, Lieut. Silvester, Miss Richardson, Miss Catherine Lenihan, Miss Lucy Webb, and Lieuts. Jones and Charley Lyman.

Lieut. and Mrs. Mathews entertained on Sunday evening at supper for Lieut. and Mrs. Calder, Lieut. Silvester, and Capt. Mudd of Schofield Barracks. After supper the party motored to the Moana Hotel to the concert.

Lieut. and Mrs. Sloan and Lieut. and Mrs. Mathews, 2nd Infantry, were visitors at Schofield Barracks on Wednesday.

Wednesday evening, and attended the mounted service dance at the officers' club.

On Thursday evening Lieut. and Mrs. Calder entertained at dinner for Lieut. Silvester and Miss Catherine Lenihan.

Major and Mrs. Dashiell entertained at dinner on Thursday evening for Capt. and Mrs. Lincoln, and Lieut. Keyes of the Maryland.

Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Randolph left for the mainland on the Matsushita on Wednesday.

Miss Ann Carpenter of Castner has been a house guest of Miss Catherine Lenihan for the past several days.

Lieut. and Mrs. Greene have invitations out for Sunday night dinner in honor of Lieut. Silvester, who will leave the regiment Wednesday with the sailing of the Maryland.

On Monday evening the officers of the 2nd Infantry will give a farewell dinner at the Young Hotel to Col. and Mrs. French. All officers and ladies of the regiment who can do so will be present. Col. and Mrs. French leave for the mainland next Saturday on the transport.

SCHOFIELD SOCIETY

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)

SCHOFIELD BARRACKS, Aug. 27.—Haleiwa hotel last Saturday night was the scene of a number of gay parties composed of service people during the dinner hour and the very enjoyable hop which followed.

At one table were seated Lieut. and Mrs. Clarence Tinker, Miss Hazel Harrison, Lieut. Edward McCleave and Capt. and Mrs. John Hunt. Lieut. and Mrs. Robert Harbold entertained as their guests Capt. and Mrs. Americus Mitchell and Mr. John Macaulay. An attractive note was given to all the tables by the leis of brilliant red double hibiscus and ferns which formed the chief decoration. A party of young people from Schofield enjoyed an informal supper on the beach, and later appeared at the dance. At this affair Miss Norma Mason and Miss Margaret Fealy were the hostesses, who entertained in honor of Miss Beatrice Mix, a homebound passenger on the Matsushita this week. Other guests were the Misses Mabel Lightfoot, Grace Cook, Consuelo Mix, Hazel Haynes, Mrs. Mason, Lieuts. Wallace Hall, Kenny Palmer, Seth Scofield, William Dorman, H. H. Richards, Wilbur Rodgers, Dr. Louis Mason and Mr. Lightfoot.

Lieut. and Mrs. William Ganoe were hosts at a delightful supper given on Saturday evening, the guests later motoring down to Haleiwa to the moonlight dance at the hotel. Two large tables were set with 12 covers each, and attractively decorated in yellow and white, bowls of the lovely Shasta daisies forming the centerpiece, with yellow shaded candelabra carrying out the color note on each table. Seated about them were Capt. and Mrs. David Stone, Miss Anna Bell Farrington, Capt. and Mrs. Charles Willard, Lieut. and Mrs. Louis Board, Lieut. and Mrs. Waldo Potter, Lieut. and Mrs. Irving Phillips, Miss Irene Farrell, Maj. and Mrs. William Cruikshank, Lieut. and Mrs. Livingston Watrous, Lieut. and Mrs. Ivens Jones, Lieut. and Mrs. Harold Naylor and Lieuts. Lester Baker, Oswald Saunders and Lieut. and Mrs. Ganoe.

Capt. and Mrs. Pelham Glassford and children returned to the post on Sunday after spending an enjoyable week-end at the Haleiwa hotel.

Mrs. John Jordan was the complimented guest at the very charming bridge luncheon given by Mrs. Roland Gaugler on Friday last. Two tables for bridge were formed during the morning hours, and a number of rubbers passed the hours very pleasantly until the luncheon hour. Mrs. L. W. V. Kennen and Mrs. Callander were the happy recipients of the prizes for high scores, which were sets of dainty liqueur glasses. Later the ladies were seated at a table decorated with a profusion of pink begonias and ferns, and a most delicious luncheon served. Present were Mesdames L. W. V. Kennen, William Forsyth, Rawson Warren, Charles Naylor, John Jordan, Chalmers Hall, Alexander Milton, Callander and Roland Gaugler.

This week an interesting event to the younger members of the mounted service garrisons was the children's tennis tournament, in which were entered 16 contestants for the championship and the cup, which was given by Miss Sue Holcomb. The preliminaries were played during last week, and were full of good games and spirited playing. Carberry O'Shea and Bill Browning were the players of the final match, and after a close and exciting set Bill Browning was judged the victor and was presented with the cup by Miss Holcomb. After the match Miss Holcomb entertained all the children of the garrison at an "ice-cream party," which was greatly enjoyed. Those taking part in the tournament were Marie Cook, Mary Cruikshank, Helen McCleave, Mary Chitty, Lorna Chitty, Isabel Boniface, Helen Preston, Ruth Coleman, Henrietta Hall, Louise O'Shea, Eileen O'Shea, Billy Martin, Bill and Bob Browning and Carberry and John O'Shea. Mrs. John Hunt and Mrs. Seth Cook assisted Miss Holcomb in keeping score and managing the contest.

Mrs. Mix and his three daughters, the Misses Beatrice and Consuelo Mix and Mrs. Alexander Johnson, left on the Matsushita this week after a visit in the post of some time. They will go first to San Jose, Cal., where the Misses Mix return to their studies in the convent of Notre Dame, and later Mrs. Johnson will accompany her father to Nogales, Arizona, and await there Lieut. Johnson's relief from Hawaiian service, which will take place within a short time.

Mrs. John Hunt entertained on Thursday last by giving an auction party of five tables. Twenty ladies enjoyed Mrs. Hunt's gracious hospitality and passed the afternoon hours with a succession of interesting rubbers. The table prizes, at the end of the playing, were awarded to Mesdames Willard, Frank, Carey, Bump, and Denison, and were dainty little work-bags of Japanese silk crepe in different colors. A delicious salad course was served late in the afternoon. Those present were Mesdames Americus Mitchell, William Mapes, Henry Wygant, Walter Frank, Raymond Bliss, Madame McCleave, George Harrison, Miss Hazel Harrison, Jesse Ladd, Edward Carey, Edmund Butts, Ernest Gose, Sue Holcomb, Arthur Bump, Charles Wyman, Clarence Tinker, Ely Denison, Donald Hay and Matthew Palen.

Capt. and Mrs. Joseph Janda gave a delightful dinner of 16 covers on Tuesday evening, preceding the 1st Infantry hop. An attractive color scheme of pink and white was carried out in the table decorations, which consisted of dainty pink silk shades on the candelabra and fragrant corsage bouquets placed at each lady's cover, made of white sweet-peas and pink roses. Miss Laura Williams house-guest of Capt. and Mrs. Edward Carey, was the complimented guest at this affair, and invited in her honor were Capt. and Mrs. Clifford Jones from Fort Kaneohe, Capt. and Mrs. Edward Carey, Capt. and Mrs. Henry Fales, Capt. and Mrs. Arthur Cassels, Capt. and Mrs. Chalmers Hall, Capt. and Mrs. Harry Knight and Lieut. Carl Fosnes.

Lieut. and Mrs. George S. Gay were also dinner hosts on Tuesday evening, entertaining for 26 guests, who were seated at two large tables. On one the color scheme was effectively carried out in red and green a large wicker basket in the center of the table, supplemented by twin ones of smaller size, placed at either end of the table, held graceful clusters of red Transvaal daisies and asparagus ferns; the shades on the four candlesticks were red, matching the flowers. Yellow and white on the other table made a dainty effect in the silver bowl of Shasta daisies and ferns and the four yellow candle-shades. The guests were Capt. and Mrs. Clarence Day, Capt. Ned Behkopt, Capt. and Mrs. Pelham Glassford, Major William Guignard, Lieut. and Mrs. Louis McKinlay, Lieut. and Mrs. Harold Vandever, Lieut. and Mrs. Waldo Potter, Lieut. and Mrs. Ivens Jones, Lieut. and Mrs. Louis Board, Lieut. and Mrs. Harold Naylor, Miss Irene Farrell, Lieut. William Dorman, Lieut. and Mrs. Swift Martin, and Lieuts. Walter Winton and Oswald Saunders.

Thursday afternoon Mrs. Arthur Cassels and Mrs. Louis McKinlay entertained at auction bridge for 30 ladies of the garrison. The affair took place in the McKinlay quarters and the pivoting game of auction was enjoyed until the tea hour. At the several tables the holders of the high scores were Mesdames Franklin Rice, Henry Lantry, Joseph Janda, Percy Deshon and Clarence Day, and the prizes were attractive basket jardiniere of various colors. At the close of the playing a delicious ice with cakes was served. The guests were Mesdames Edmund Butts, William Cruikshank, John Jordan, John Fair, Sue Holcomb, John O'Shea, Pelham Glassford, Americus Mitchell, Franklin Rice, Albert White, Robert Donaldson, Campbell King, Clarence Day, George Apple, George Bailey, William Dodds, George Gay, Roger Mason, Percy Deshon, Miss Norma Mason, Henry Fales, William McCleave, Henry Lantry, William Chitty and the Misses Carrie and Esther McMahon.

Mrs. Frank Burnett was hostess on Thursday at luncheon which was preceded by bridge. Mrs. Albert Brooke, mother of Mrs. Walter Pridgen, was the guest of honor, and invited to meet her were Mesdames Edmund Butts, Madame McCleave, Edward Carey, John Fair, William Aiken, Walter Pridgen, Waldo Ayer, William Forsyth, John Wisser. The prizes were won by Mrs. Butts and Madame McCleave and were boxes of dainty correspondence cards. The luncheon table presented a lovely appearance in its garnitures of pink and white, a large bowl of carnations in those colors forming an effective centerpiece.

Captain and Mrs. William Mapes entertained at dinner on Friday before the 25th Infantry hop. Yellow and white were chosen for the color notes of the attractive table, and were carried out in flowers, which were Shasta daisies, and candle shades and place cards. Covers were placed for Captain and Mrs. Jay Whitman, Lieut. and Mrs. George Gay, Capt. Charles Ferris, Lieut. Lester Baker and Capt. and Mrs. Mapes.

Lieut. and Mrs. Charles Wyman gave a delightful hop supper on Friday, entertaining for Major and Mrs. Edmund Butts, Dr. and Mrs. Neal Wood, Captain and Mrs. Americus Mitchell, Lieut. Charles Rich, Lieut. and Mrs. Matthew Palen, Lieut. and Mrs. Ely Denison, Lieut. and Mrs. Clarence Tinker, Lieut. and Mrs. Walter Frank, Lieut. and Mrs. Carl Baker.

The decorations of the various tables at which the company was seated were carried out in yellow.

Captain and Mrs. Americus Mitchell have entertained this week Judge and Mrs. Powell and their two daughters, who are on their way to Manila.

On Monday a special hop is to be given in the First Infantry pavilion in honor of the officers and ladies who are to leave in September for home stations. The list includes from the First Infantry Captain and Mrs. Franklin Jackson, Captain Grosvenor Townsend, Lieuts. Walter Robertson, Charles Little, Eugene Fales, Haig Shakerjian and Lieut. and Mrs. Luther James. The First Field Artillery will lose Major and Mrs. William Cruikshank, Lieut. and Mrs. Waldo Potter, Lieut. Walter Winton, Lieut. and Mrs. Harold Naylor and Captain and Mrs. George Apple. Lieut. H. H. Richards of the Fourth Cavalry goes to the aviation school at San Diego, Cal.

SCANDAL

Scandal is that which gives us pleasure in the thought that somebody else has done something which we have escaped doing because we were not similarly situated. Scandal furnishes an occupation for women and newspapers. It began in the Garden of Eden, and will, in a few minutes after the last man has left the earth.—Life.
